9 HENRY V.—PART I.

[Letters dated on and after 16 June in this year are attested by John, duke of Bedford, keeper of England.]

1421. Membrane 27.

April 4. York. Grant for life to the king's knight William Haryngton of 100L yearly from 7 May last from the rents, issues, fines, amercements and other profits and commodities from the commote of Turkellyn within the isle of Anglesey in North Wales; because on account of the accidental loss of the king's letters of privy seal he can have no execution of a like grant of that date, made in lieu of a grant by letters patent dated 24 February, 6 Henry V. By p.s.

April 8. Howden. Pardon to Meredyth son of Owyn de Glendordy of Wales for all reasons, felonies, insurrections, adherences to the king's enemies, trespasses, rebellions, contemptts, deceptions, misprisions, ignorances, concealments and other offences; as on the testimony of holy writ the son shall not bear the iniquity of his father nor for the offence of one is another to be punished but each shall bear his own burden and receive reward as he has done, whether it be good or evil, and although Owyn rebelled against the king and the crown, prodigal of his honour and forgetful of his due fealty, nevertheless Meredyth after his father's death did not follow his malice but having it in hatred dwell peaceably among the king's subjects and came as soon as he could to the king's presence in spirit of humility and demeanour of a penitent, and the king has inclined ears of pity to his supplication on that account.

By K.
