Membrane 16—cont.

chaplain, one of the vicars, as warden until he or another be elected by the vicars according to the old custom of the church and approved by the chapter, and grants that the warden and vicars shall have all their old possessions and liberties. But the canons shall present to the vicarages according to the old customs; and the warden and vicars shall abstain from all unlawful alienation of their lands, rents and possessions, and may not charge the college or their lands without the authority of the dean and chapter or attempt anything against the chapter or any canon, and the vicars shall be subject to the dean and chapter.

By K.

May 30. Presentation of Hamo Offynton, parson of the church of Iwehirst, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Brede, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien abbey of Fécamp in England being in his hands, on an exchange of benefits with Robert Barton.

May 30. Pardon to Robert Smyth of Alton, co. Stafford, chaplain, of his outlawry in the said county for not appearing before the king to answer for divers trespasses, contempts, insurrections, extortions and excesses; he having surrendered to the Marshalsea prison, as William Hankeford, chief justice, has certified.

May 20. Mandate to the escheator in the county of Middlesex for the restitution of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Peter, Westminster, immediately subject to the Roman church, to Richard Hareweden, monk of the house, whose election as abbot the pope has confirmed and whose fealty the king has taken. By K.

The like to the escheators in the following counties:—
Northampton and Rutland.
Buckingham.
Oxford and Berks.
Essex and Hertford.
Gloucester and the march of Wales adjacent.
Worcester.
Warwick.
Surrey and Sussex.

The like to William Caumbrigge, mayor of London and escheator in that city.
Writ de intendendo in pursuance to the tenants. By K.

June 1. Ratification of the estate which Thomas Nicol has as vicar of the church of St. Peter, Kermerdyn, in the diocese of St. Davids, provided no plea be pending in the king's court and the king have not presented anyone else.

May 26. The like for the following:—
Guy Louthir, parson of the church of Kaldebek, in the diocese of Carlisle.