1421. Membrane 12—cont.

Longevels parcel of the possessions of the priory of St. Faith, Longevyle, and the manor of Horstede, co. Norfolk, parcel of the house or priory of Caen in Normandy, alien. By K.

June 7. Whereas Edward, sometime prince of Wales, lately by letters patent granted to William Sadeler, then his bailiff of Watlyngton, and Isabel his wife a messuage with a curtilage which John Smyth sometime held in Watlyngton, to hold to themselves and their heirs at a rent of 3s. yearly, and William gave a parcel of the same to Richard Capell and Alice his wife in marriage and William and Richard have made great expenses in the building of the messuage, and the messuage and curtilage have now been resumed into the king’s hands as parcel of the duchy of Cornwall; the king grants the messuage with the curtilage to Richard and Alice for life according to the form of the letters patent.

By p.s.

July 3. Presentation of John Ferby, parson of the church of Crokyseston, in the diocese of Winchester, to the vicarage of the church of Shirbourne Monachorum, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefits with Richard Preston.

July 2. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for one year, lately granted by letters patent to William Lyneham alias Lynam of the county of Essex, ‘yoman,’ going in the company of the king’s knight Henry Noon to France on the king’s service, because he delays at Suthwerk, co. Surrey, as John Halle the elder, sheriff of Surrey, has certified.

June 3. Grant to the prior and convent of the house of Jesus of Bethleem, Shene, of all goods late of Henry Chapman, late tenant and resident within the town of Middelton, co. Northampton, forfeited to the king because he was convicted of treason and counterfeiting of money before William Hankeford, chief justice of the King’s Bench, and his fellows at Northampton.

By p.s.

June 6. Grant, during pleasure, to Geoffrey Yonge of the keeping of the gate of the castle and the park of Ledes, co. Kent, from 27 October last, receiving the accustomed wages, fees and profits at the hands of the bailiffs, farmers or occupiers of the manor and lordship of Ledes; in lieu of another grant to him by letters patent of that date (see p. 300), surrendered because of imperfect specification. By p.s., vacated because elsewhere in this year.

June 7. Whereas Edward I by letters patent granted the reversion of the manor of Bloxham, co. Oxford, to Roger Beauchamp his yeoman for life at the accustomed farm, and afterwards for life without rendering anything, and afterwards to him and his heirs, so that he should hold it for life without rendering anything and his heirs after his death should render the said yearly farm, and Richard II by letters patent granted to Adam atte Wode and his heirs and assigns the accustomed yearly farm viz. 20l. from the manor at the hands of Roger Beauchamp son and heir of the said Roger, then tenant of the manor, and his heirs and assigns, and John Beauchamp late husband of Edith late wife of the king’s knight Robert Shottesbroke enfeoffed John