Membrane 9—cont.

1421.

June 10.  Appointment of the king’s brother John, duke of Bedford, as keeper of the realm and the king’s lieutenant in it during the absence of the king, who is going to France, or until further orders. [Feadera.] By K. Grant of powers to him (as on p. 113).

June 5.  Confirmation to William Ramesey, on the surrender of letters patent dated 2 October, 4 Henry IV [Calendar, 1401–1405, p. 159], to him and Ralph Rameyse his brother, deceased, of a grant to him by the king’s knight Thomas Erpyngham of 20 marks yearly during the life of the latter out of 100 marks yearly granted to the latter from the fee-farm of the town of Cambridge by letters patent dated 10 January, 3 Henry IV [Ibid. p. 47]; and grant that he shall have the same for life after the death of Thomas.

By K. & for 20s. paid in the hanaper.

July 2.  Grant for life to the king’s servant John Staneby, one of the yeomen of the king’s chamber, of 6d. daily from 4 August last from the issues of the counties of Essex and Hertford.

Grant to the abbot and convent of Charteseie, co. Surrey, of 15l. yearly from the great custom in the port of London until Master John Welburn, late parson of the church of Stanwell, be promoted to any prebend or other benefice without cure to the value of 50l. yearly within the realm or he dead; in lieu of a like grant to them from the customs and subsidies in the port of Chichester, co. Sussex, and other ports adjacent by letters patent dated 1 March, 2 Henry V, which annuity the barons of the Exchequer refuse to allow because the subsidies were granted to the king under the condition that no grant should be made from them for term of life or years.
