Nov. 8. Licence, with the assent of the council, for one year, for Robert de Barbour, Adam Wotton of Carnervam, John le Clerk, William Stretton of Beaumareys, Robert Bayton, William Braban of Coneway and John Raumvill of Hardelagh to cross to Ireland to buy corn there for the victualling of the king’s castles in North Wales. By p.s.

June 8. Grant to Richard Beauchamp, earl of Worcester (sic), of the keeping of all lands, rents and services late of William Gamage, ‘chivaler,’ tenant in chief by knight-service, during the minority of Thomas his son and heir, with the marriage of the latter, and so from heir to heir, without rendering anything to the king. The king lately granted the keeping to him by letters patent sealed under the great seal within the duchy of Normandy, but one John Basset his servant, who had the letters in his custody, was captured by the king’s enemies in France when crossing to England on a message of the earl, and so the letters were lost.
