1422.

Membrane 11—cont.

Ratification, with the assent of the council, of the estate of Henry Somer, who holds to himself and his heirs and assigns the manor of Depham and all lands, rents and services, meadows, feedings and pastures late of Nicholas Brenchleseye and Isabel his wife in the town and hundred of Edelmeton, co. Middlesex, not held of the king.

By p.s.

May 3. Whereas by an inquisition taken before John Cerfe, escheator in Westminster, within the county of Northumberland, it was found that Cristiana late the wife of John Midelton, 'chivaler,' long before her death granted to Roger de Thornton of Newcastle on Tyne the elder, John de Midelton, son of John de Midelton, knight, her son, and Isabel his wife, daughter of the said Roger, John de Fenwyk and Thomas de Pityngton, chaplains, still surviving, a third part of the manor and lordship of Jesmonth, held of the king in chief, to hold to themselves and their heirs, by virtue of which they were seised of the third part, and it was taken into the king's hand by the death of Cristiana and on account of the trespass; the king, for 100s. paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespass.

May 27. Revocation of the protection with clause volumus, for three quarters of a year, lately granted by letters patent to Thomas Seyntcler of the county of Surrey, 'glover,' going on the king's service to France in the company of the king's brother John, duke of Bedford, because he delays in the city and suburbs of London, as appears by certificate of the sheriffs.

May 28. The like of like protection for one year granted to Richard Maughfeld of London, 'ffismonger,' going on the king's service to France in the company of Richard Wallere, esquire, captain of the castle and town of Montreu Fauteyon, on the safe-keeping of the same.

June 18. Presentation of David Perion, chaplain, to the church of Newyn Denewyn, in the diocese of Bangor.

June 5. Pardon, for 100 marks paid in the hanaper, to John Meverell, esquire, of his trespass in marrying John Bromley son of William son of Thomas de Bromley, esquire, kinsman and heir of the said Thomas, tenant in chief, without licence, John's marriage pertaining to the king.

June 19. Whereas Robert Darcy, John Druell, parson of the parish church of Castell Asshby, John Astwyk the elder and John Stanford lately acquired to themselves and their heirs from Gerard Braybrook son and heir of Gerard Braybrook, knight, two parts of the manors of Harlyngdon, co. Bedford, and Bastilden, co. Berks, with the reversions of the third parts of the same, which Eleanor late the wife of Almaric, lord de Sancto Amando, holds in dower of the endowment of her said husband, held of the king in chief, and entered on the said two parts without licence; the king, for 40 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespasses in this.

June 18. Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Hayward, of the office of porter of the castle of Porchestre, co. Southampton, with the accustomed wages and fees.

By p.s.