1422.

Aug. 20.  Presentation of Robert Stronge, parson of the church of Thorpe Stockton, Westminster, to the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, to a mediety of the church of Derley, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Robert Duffeld.

July 16.  Commission to John Legburne, clerk, John Thoralby, clerk, Thomas Holden, esquire, and James Grenehalgh, esquire, of the keeping of Thomas son and heir of John de Lumley, 'chivaler,' tenant in chief, during his minority with his marriage without disparagement, and so from heir to heir, paying for the marriage 400 marks in hand to the king.

Membrane 16d.

March 22.  Commission, during pleasure, to Thomas Deuton to take men within the city of London or elsewhere to make harness for horses to draw the king's carts.

April 6.  Commission to Henry, bishop of Winchester, and Thomas, bishop of Durham, to take muster at Letleyheth of the king's brother John, duke of Bedford, and the men at arms, armed men and archers going in his company to France to the king's presence, and to certify thereon to the king and council.

Membrane 15d.

April 22.  Commission to Henry Bromley, serjeant at arms, to inform himself about divers goods and merchandise of certain merchants of Paris, Rouen, Troyes and Bruges in a hulk of which Peter de Bronde was master, loaded to take them from the port of Lescluse to Sayne and driven by the intemperateness of the sea by a port or place called Seton on the land of the countess of Arundel and there broken, and to seize without delay all that were in the ship and pertained to the merchants and put them in safe-keeping until further orders.

May 4.  Commission to Robert Morton, clerk, and John Kyme to take stone-cutters, carpenters, tilers and other workmen, labourers and artificers for the king's works within the castle of Lincoln and other castles, manors, mills, houses and buildings in the county.

The like to William Wilflete and Nicholas Shuyssh for the king's works within the castle of Colchester and other castles, manors, houses and buildings in the counties of Essex, Hertford and Middlesex.