1422.

Membrane 7d—cont.

The like to Ralph Huskard, master of a ship of the king called Graunde Marie.

The like to William Cheke, master of a ship of the king called Thomas de la Tour.

July 1. Westminster. Commission to Walter de la Pole, 'chivaler,' Richard Billyngford, clerk, John Greneleane, mayor of Cambridge, Nicholas Hywynsh, Nicholas Caltecote and John Bilney of Cambridge, on information that the great bridge of the town of Cambridge is so broken that great damages and perils have happened to the men and cattle crossing it and certain men of the town and the adjacent parts have carried off stones of the bridge and others have taken divers sums of money for its repair from those who are bound to repair it by reason of their holding but have rendered no account, to enquire into the matter and cause restoration to be made and the bridge to be repaired.