1422.

MEMBRANE 30d.

Oct. 5. Commission to William Tenderle, master of the king's carrack called le Cristofre de la Tour, and John Morgan, clerk of the same carrack, to arrest and purvey 80 mariners, to navigate that vessel to Bordeaux, and also carpenters necessary for her repairs, to serve at the king's wages, and victuals for the same.

Oct. 15. Commission to John Baldok, Roger Wyllis and John Redy to arrest and take the carriages required for the transport from London to Dover and back of the tapers (herceis) and other lights to be placed about the corpse of the king's father. [Feadera.]

Dec. 16. The like to John Preston, James Strangways, Richard Gascoigne, Guy Rouelyff, Guy Fairfax, John Portynngton, Thomas Auenger, William Strausfeld and William Outhorp, along the waters of Ayre, Ouse, Done and Went between Snyath and the ancient course of the Done in the parts of Mersland, co. York.

1423.

May 12. The like to John Pelham, knight, the prior of Michelham, Robert Oxenbregge, Adam Iwode, John Nelond and John Halle, between Hasenyngs and Bexele in the towns of St. Leonard's, Holyngton, Wiltyng, Boxele, Crowcherst and Bulwarthith, in continuation of a similar appointment by the king's father.

July 8. The like to Robert Tirwhit, Thomas Santon, Robert Feryby, Robert Wasselyn, Henry Morlay and Thomas Belwode, between the waters of Trent and Ankholme in the parts of Lyndesey, co. Lincoln, the said Robert Tirwhit, Thomas Santon, Robert Feryby and Thomas Belwode being of the quorum.

1422.

MEMBRANE 28d.

Nov. 21. Commission to Robert Andrewe, John Wykes and John Stourton the elder, and the sheriffs and escheators in the counties of Gloucester, Wilts and Somerset, to make inquisition into concealed lands, tenements, wardships and reliefs in those counties.

Nov. 27. Commission to William Cheyne of Shepey, Roger Rye and Stephen Cosyngton, to make inquisition in the county of Kent whether or no the abbey of St. Mary, Boxele, is of the foundation of the king's progenitors and of the king's patronage, and whether any persons have entered on lands belonging to the foundation of the said abbey and forcibly ejected the abbot and convent from such lands, &c. or from lands of the said abbot.

MEMBRANE 27d.

Nov. 26. Commission to Thomas Straunge, esquire, constable of the castle of Cherk, to purvey horses, carts and other transport to convey fifteen prisoners of France from the said castle to the city of London.