Membrane 8.
Dec. 18. Inspeviximus and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of the Westminster, following:

(1) Letters patent (French) of Henry V when prince of Wales, dated at Westminster, 10 November, 11 Henry IV, granting, for life, to John Cornwaille, the prince’s knight, for his good service, an annual rent of 400 marks, to begin after the death of his wife, Elizabeth, countess of Huntingdon, the prince’s aunt, out of the castle and manors of Trematon, Calestok and Assheburgh, the castle, park and manors of Rostormel, Penlyn and Penkynth, the boroughs and towns of Cambilford, and the manors of Tewynton, Moresk and Tyntagell, co. Cornwall, payable by the prince’s receiver-general.

(2) Letters patent, dated 16 July, 1 Henry V, inspecting and confirming the following:

(a) Letters patent, dated 13 July, 21 Richard II, being a grant of 60l. a year to the said John Cornwaille, knight.

(b) Letters patent of Henry V when prince of Wales, dated at Westminster, 16 April, 5 Henry IV, in favour of the same.

(3) Letters patent, dated 16 July, 1 Henry V, being a grant of various annuities to the said John and Elizabeth.

(4) Letters patent, dated 20 October, 1 Henry V, being a grant of the custody of the lands in England of the abbey of Fécamp and of the priory of Tywardreyth, co. Cornwall, except the manor of Bury which was then in the hands of the earl of Arundell. By p.s.

Be it remembered that the king on 18 March 4 Henry VI, by letters patent, granted to the said John Cornwaille the said castles of Trematon, &c. (mentioned in No. 1) with the borough and towns of Lostwithiell, and the fishery of the water of Fowey, from the date of the death of the said Elizabeth, then deceased, in lieu of the said 400 marks a year.

Membrane 7.
Feb. 12. Pardon, for 1,000 marks paid in the hammer, to the heir of Thomas Westminster, de Lancaster, late duke of Clarence, and to Henry, bishop of Winchester, Thomas Beaufort, duke of Exeter, William Alyngton, esquire, Ralph Cromwell, knight, John Colvile, William Bowes, Henry Morston, clerk, James Strangways and John Martyn and their heirs and the heirs of Richard Norton and John Heron, deceased, for that, whereas the said duke of Clarence being seised to him, his heirs and assigns, by letters patent of Henry IV, of the manor and lordship of Brustwyk, the castle and manor of Skipsea, the patronage of the abbey of Meaux, co. York, the manor of Barowe, the patronage of the abbey of Thornton, co. Lincoln, and of all manors, lands, tenements, rents, services, franchises, liberties and possessions whatsoever, under whatever names known, within the towns of Preston, Burton Pidse, Bond Brustwyk, Skeklyng, Lelle Dyke, Paule, Kayngham, Skefliyng, Bseyington, Kylnsee, Wythornsee and Cleton, with the appurtenances in co. York and elsewhere, in as ample a manner as Aime, sometime queen of England, held them, enfeoffed therein, by licence of the said late king, the aforesaid bishop, Thomas Beaufort, and William Alyngton, as also the following, since deceased, viz.:—John Stanley, knight, then steward of the household of Henry IV, Thomas Stanley, clerk, John Daubriggecourt, knight, William Marny, knight, and Peter Bucton, knight, to them and their heirs, and afterwards entered on their possession; the said bishop, Thomas Beaufort by the name of Thomas, duke