Feb. 20. Commission to William Carant, escheator in co. Dorset, and William Westminster, Payn to make inquisition into the real age of Theobald, brother and heir of John Gorges, son of Thomas Gorges, the said Theobald having complained by petition, addressed to the duke of Gloucester and to the lords of the Parliament held at Westminster, on Monday before Martinmas last, which petition was remitted by the said Parliament to the council, that in the inquisition taken after the death of the said John Gorges, before Thomas Hody, late escheator of Dorset, at Blanford, on Friday, 22 June, 7 Henry V, relative to the fourth part of the manor of Stourmynstre Mareschal, the age of the said Theobald was stated to be 13 years and more, whereas it was really 17 years and more, and he is thereby delayed in having livery of his lands. (See above, Part 2 m. 14d.)
