1423.

Membrane 22—cont.

20 marks a year for three years, out of the great custom called the 'cocket,' in the port of the said city; which sum, as well as the amount of the fee-farm for the period specified, is to be expended on the said repairs, under the survey and control of the treasurer of Ireland.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors of customs of the said port.

By p.s.

By p.s.

July 1. Pardon to Richard Brewehou, alias Foche, of Marom, co. Lincoln, Westminster, 'laborer,' for the death of William Blaye, of Marom, or Marum, co. Lincoln, 'husbondman;' whereof he is arraigned, it being certified by John Cokayn and his fellows, justices of Henry V appointed to deliver the gaol of Lincoln, that he killed him in self-defence.

July 3. Grant, during pleasure, from 18 February last, by advice of the council, Westminster, to John Malpasa of the office of keeper of the king's armour (armaturarum) within the Tower of London, receiving the usual wages at the hands of the master-keeper of the privy wardrobe within the said tower, and a robe of the suit of the yeomen of the household at the hands of the keeper of the great wardrobe, together with a small house now vacant in the said Tower, next to the tower within which the rolls of the king's chancery are contained, in the same manner as Robert Pynford held the said office when alive.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 21.

June 22. Grant in frank almonie to the prior and convent of Iyvercheshe, next Westminster, the park of Claryngdou, of the church of Uphaven, co. Wilts, and the chapel of Cherlon annexed to the same, being a prebend in the cathedral church of Salisbury, commonly called the alien priory of Uphaven, belonging to the abbey of St. Wandragisil in Normandy; in consideration of the surrender by the prior and convent of the said priory of Ivycherche of their right to pasture 40 oxen and cows and 20 swine, with the young of the said swine, within the said park perpetually; as also, on surrender of the prescriptive right claimed by the said prior to have a man commonly called a 'stikker' daily enter the said park to collect wood for the use of the said priory. Licence also to the abbot and convent of the abbey of St. Wandragisil in Normandy to release in mortmain to the said prior and convent of Iyvercheshe all their claim to the said church, or prebend, and chapel, together with the fruits, portions, pensions, tithes, offerings, jurisdictions, demesnes, lands, tenements, meadows, pastures, woods, rents, services, advowsons, franchises, liberties, waters, fisheries, views of frank pledge, ways, suits of court, reversions, and other things both spiritual and temporal belonging to the same. Provided always that the said prior and convent pay all things due to the king or to the church of Salisbury in respect of the said church or prebend and chapel, and celebrate a mass daily within their priory for the king and for Catherine his mother while alive, and for their souls after death, and for the souls of Henry V, Henry IV, Richard II, and other the king's