progenitors and ancestors. Provided also that if the said prior and convent shall ever be lawfully put out of the said church or prebend and chapel, that then they shall recover their rights in the said park.

By K. and C. in parliament and by p.s.

July 6. Appointment of William Pakyn, deputy of John Arderno, clerk of Westminster, the king's works, to be purveyor of the same works at the manor and park of Claryndon. He is to arrest, take and employ, at the king's charges, the necessary workmen and materials; to imprison those refusing to serve; to enquire into embezzlements of materials and compel restitution; to sell the branches, bark and other remnants of trees provided for the works, and to account for the proceeds.

By bill of the clerk of the works.

July 6. The like of William Rauf, to be purveyor of the works at the palace of Westminster, the Tower of London, the manors of Eltham, Shene, Chilternlegatey, and Udyham, the lodges within the parks of Eltham, Chilternlegatey, and Ogynam, and the meads at Charyngerouche and other castles, manors and lodges of the king.

MEMBRANE 20.

Grant, by advice of the great council, to the king's lieutenant and justices in Ireland, of power to appoint, in the king's name, by advice and assent of his council there, by letters patent under his great seal of Ireland, certain miners and other sufficient labourers to dig in the king's soil or in the soil of others, with the owner's consent, for gold or silver and to smelt such gold and silver when found until pure enough for coining. Grant also to the said lieutenant and justices of similar power to appoint workmen to work, make, manufacture, coin and strike in Ireland, in such places as shall be judged most expedient, the king's money; viz., groat, half-groat, pence, halfpence, and farthings of pure silver, and the money so worked from time to time to deliver and pay to natives of the country and others. Provided always that such money shall be of the same weight, alloy, and assay in all things as the king's silver money which is worked in the Tower of London, and that the masters of the mint in Ireland are to receive as much for the making and working of one pound of money there worked, and to render as much to the king from time to time, as the master of the mint in the Tower aforesaid; and that such masters be bound to the due performance of the premises by indentures in that behalf to be made between them and the king, in the same manner and form as his master of his coinage in the Tower. By p.s.

June 10. Westminster. Licence, in mortmain, to John Podde, to give to the guardian and conservator of the house of the Friars Minors of Colchester, 82 acres of land in Colchester, containing the lode and pipe of the underground conduit which forms its sole water supply. For 10s. paid in the hanaper. By p.s.

June 15. Westminster. Appointment, during pleasure, of Reginald White to provide stonecutters, carpenters, and other workmen and labourers, at the king's wages, for his works at Shene and elsewhere; also stones, timber, and other materials, giving prompt payment for the same.

April 23. Westminster. Assent and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of letters patent, dated 20 September, 8 Henry V, being a grant to Walter Charlton, esquire, of the custody of the forest of Bradon. By p.s.
