Beatrice his wife, during life, and for their souls after death, and for the souls of the progenitors of the said king and of the ancestors of the said earl, and of all faithful departed, according to a form, ordinance and rule to be made by the said earl or his heirs and the ordinary of the place; the said chaplain, and each of his successors for the time being to be called master of the hospital of the Holy Trinity of Arundel, and to be capable of acquiring, to himself and his successors, land, teneaments, rents, services, profits, benefices, advowsons and possessions, spiritual and temporal, whether held of the king or not, to the clear yearly value of 100£. The said late king also gave licence to the said late earl to give to the said master in frank almon the said 3 acres of land held in chief for the chapel or church and other buildings and enclosures of the said hospital to be built on the same, and also the advowsons of the churches of Westbourne and Storghton, which churches the said master might appropriate. Now the said late earl gave to the said late king the advowson of the church of Yevell, co. Somerset, in return for the said licence, but the said licence is ineffectual as regards the said advowsons of Westbourne and Storghton, because they are entailed to the heirs male of Richard, late earl of Arundel. Also the said Thomas, late earl, amongst other things, granted to John Bohun, knight, William Hankford, John Wiltshire, knight, Robert Hulle, Nicholas Carrow, William Cheyne, William Rymar and Robert Jugler, and to others since deceased, and their heirs, the manors of Sullyngton, Heen, Fulde and Knolle, Northwode, Brommore in Brydham, Tortyngton, Ertham Bouedon, Kyngeston by Lewes and Trefford with the appurtenances, a messuage and 60 acres of land, called 'Lychepole,' in Somityng, a messuage, 60 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow, called 'Ilesham haket' in Ilesham, 50 acres of land and 350 acres of pasture in Stor-nton, co. Sussex, not held in chief nor exceeding in value 100£. a year, for the execution of the matter in the aforesaid licence contained, and to fulfil other wishes of the aforesaid Thomas late earl. Now the king, in consideration of the above, by advice of his great council, and for 100 marks paid in the hanaper, licences in mortmain the said John, William, John, Robert, Nicholas, William and Robert, to grant in frank almon to the said master and his successors the said manors of Sullyngton, Heen, Fulde and Knolle the said messuage and 60 acres of land called 'Lychepole,' in Somityng, two-thirds of the said manors of Northwode, Brommore in Bridham, and Tortyngton, two thirds of the said messuage, 60 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow in Ilesham, and two thirds of the said 50 acres of land, and 350 acres of pasture in Storghton, to the use of the said master and poor and infirm persons aforesaid, and for the support of the said hospital: and also licences the said John, William, John, Robert, Nicholas, William, William and Robert to grant to the same master and his successors the reversions of the manor of Trefford, after the death of Hugh Punchardon, tenant for life; of two-thirds of said manor of Kyngeston by Lewes, after the deaths of John Hanslap and John Kelsale, tenants for life; of two-thirds of the manor of Ertham Bouedon after the death of Thomas Yarum, tenant for life; and one-third of the said manors of Northwode, Brommore in Bridham, Tortyngton, Ertham Bouedon and Kyngeston by Lewes, and of the said messuage, 60 acres of land and 4 acres of meadow in Ilesham, and of the said 50 acres of land and 350 acres of pasture in Storghton, on the death of Beatrice, countess of Arundel, tenant in dower, in full satisfaction of the said licence of the said late king.
