

1423.

MEMBRANE 23d.

June 24. Commission to Walter de la Pole, knight, Richard Billyngford, clerk, Westminster. John Grenelane, mayor of Cantebrigg, William Fulburne, Nicholas Hywyssh and John Bilney, of Cantebrigg, or any two or more of them, including Fulburne or Hywyssh, to hold inquisition as to the persons bound by reason of tenure or otherwise to construct and repair the great bridge of the town of Cambridge, reported to be ruinous, and also to enquire as to persons said to have taken away stones and timber belonging to the said bridge, or to have received sums of money for its repair, but never to have accounted for the same. Restitution must be made of such materials and money and the bridge speedily repaired.

MEMBRANE 22d.

June 25. Commission, during pleasure, to John Gardynere to select and take Westminster. the necessary stonecutters, carpenters and other labourers for the king's works at Eltham, Shene and elsewhere, and to put them to such work at the king's wages during his pleasure. Also to arrest and take the requisite stones, timber and other materials.

MEMBRANE 17d.

July 12. Commission to John Martyn, Thomas Lane, William Haute, Roger Westminster. Rye and the sheriff of Kent, to hold inquisition as to weirs, stakes and kidells, alleged to have been erected at various points in the rivers of Thames and Medeweie, from a place called Reculver to Yendale, and thence to the bridge of Maydeston, to the impediment of navigation, contrary to the statutes of 25 Edward III [St. iii. c. 4], and 45 Edward III [c. 2].

July 12. Commission of oyer and terminer to William Cheyne, William Paston, Westminster. Robert Hull, John Hals, William Frye and John Selman the elder, or any two or more of them including Cheyne, or Paston or Hull or Hals, on complaint by the reeve and commonalty of the town of Plymton Earl's, that Richard Gillam of Ailberton, co. Devon, 'husbondman,' Roger Jurdan of the same, 'husbondman,' and Nicholas Derby of the same, 'yoman,' and certain other malefactors, arrayed in manner of war, broke the house of the said reeve and commonalty called 'le yeld halle,' and the stocks in the same house, and took away a certain William Crese, confined in the said stocks for a breach of the king's peace committed in the same town. For 10s. paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 16d.

July 10. By inquisition taken before John Jurdan, escheator to Henry IV, in Westminster. co. Dorset, it was found that Thomas Gorges, deceased, was seised in fee tail, that is to him and the heirs male of his body, by gift of Walter Waleys of one fourth of the manor of Sturmynstre Marchel, in the said county, and of the advowson of the vicarage of the said town, and that long before his death he granted the said one fourth to Robert Grey, John Fauntleroy the younger, Edmund Eliot, clerk, and Robert Veel and their heirs, by the name of his manor of Sturmynster Marchel, and all his lands and tenements in the said town, except the advowson of the said vicarage, at the yearly rent of one rose at midsummer day for the term of three years, and thence forward at their will