and to Richard Waldegrave and Andrew Botiller, knights, Robert de Teye, Richard Baynard, Simon Prentys, parson of Little Cornithch and Richard, perpetual vicar of Assyngton, still living, in fee simple, whereby the said Richard Waldegrave, Andrew, Robert de Teye, Richard Baynard, Simon and Richard, vicar of Assyngton, were seised, without the king's licence, when the inquisition was taken. By reason of which trespasses and the death of the said William, the manor was taken into the then king's hands. The king now, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons the said trespasses and licences the said surviving grantees to have again and hold the said manor.

Nov. 16. Grant, by advice of the council, to John Cornswail, king's knight, and his assigns, of Louis de Burbon, count of Vendoemsse, who was taken prisoner of war by the said John at the battle of Agyncourt, together with all arrears of his finance and ransom. Licence also for the said John, as often as he pleases, to give permission to the said count to go to his own country to obtain the said finance and ransom and to return to England under the king's safe conduct. By p.s.

Nov. 19. Grant to Robert Felton, chaplain, of the canonry and prebend, which William Galander lately held in the king's collegiate chapel of St. Stephen's, Westminster, void by the death of the said William. By p.s. Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter.

MEMBRANES 31, 30.

Nov. 15. Inspeiximus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the Lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament lately held at Westminster, to the burgesses of Oxford, of a charter dated 20 January, 2 Henry IV [Charter Roll, 2 Henry IV, part 1, No. 14], inspecting and confirming letters patent, dated 16 February, 1 Richard II [Patent Roll, 1 Richard II, part 3, m. 4], inspecting and confirming a charter, dated 10 May, 1 Edward III [Charter Roll, 1 Edward III, No. 54], inspecting and confirming, with amplifications, the following:—

1. A charter of Henry II, dated at Canterbury, and witnessed by Reginald, earl of Cornwall, and others.
2. A charter, dated 14 June, 1 John.
3. A charter, dated 20 July, 29 Edward I [Charter Roll, 29 Edward I, No. 9], inspecting and confirming two charters, dated, respectively, 16 February, 13 Henry III [Charter Roll, 13 Henry III, part 2, m. 8], and 26 March, 41 Henry III. By p.s.

Nov. 8. King Henry IV, by letters patent, dated 3 April, in his 3rd year, granted to John Shadworth that the tonnage of wools in the port of London should be, during the life of the said John, in his house called 'le Wollewarf,' and that in return for the use of that house and other chambers and of a cell for the convenience of the customers, controllers, clarks and other officers there, the said John should receive 4l. a year out of the customes on wools, hides and woolfells in the port of London. The said John made estate of the said house, called 'Wollewarf,' to William Lynne, since deceased, and Alice his wife, their heirs and successors, and has now surrendered his said letters patent.

The king, therefore, at his request and by advice of the council, has granted, during pleasure, to the said Alice, that the tonnage shall
