Oct. 28. Presentation of Thomas Brian, prebendary of the prebend of the altar of St. Catherine, in the collegiate church of St. John of Beverley, in the diocese of York, to the prebend of Monkton, in the collegiate church of St. Wilfrid of Rypon, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Haxey.

Mandate, in pursuance, to the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric, the see being void.

The like mandate to the chapter of the church of St. Wilfrid.

Dec. 4. Appointment, during pleasure, by advice of the council, of Edward Stradlyng, king's knight, to be his chamberlain and receiver of South Wales, at the usual wages and fees; the said Edward having found security, viz., himself in 500 marks and John Cheyne and William Wolf, king's knights, in 100 marks each, to be of good bearing in such office towards the king and his people without extortion or wrong-doing, and to render to the king 10 marks yearly more than other chamberlains and receivers have done.

Dec. 15. Robert Barbot of Ernell and William, son of Richard le Wayte of Denemedo, co. Southampton, esquires, and Margaret, wife of the latter, acquired to themselves and the heirs of the bodies of the said William and Margaret, from the said Richard, the manor of Wymerynghe, in the said county, held of the king in chief, and entered therein without licence.

The king now, for 12 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespasses so committed, and licence the said Robert, William and Margaret to hold the said manor.

Nov. 19. Grant to Robert Felton, chaplain, of the canonyry and prebend which William Galandre lately held in the king's collegiate chapel of St. Stephen, Westminster, void by the death of the said William.

Mandate in pursuance to the dean and chapter of the said chapel.

Nov. 26. Licence, in mortmain, by advice of the great council, for the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Andrew, Wells, to acquire to pious uses from Nicholas, bishop of Bath and Wells, or other persons, lands and rents to the yearly value of 40 marks, not held of the king in chief.

Licence, in mortmain, by the advice of the great council and for 50l. paid in the hanaper, for the aforesaid bishop to grant to the aforesaid dean and chapter, the advowson of the church of Bokeland Abbot's, in the diocese of Salisbury, in which church a vicarage has long been endowed, in the gift of the said bishop in right of his see; and for them to appropriate the same church.

Dec. 12. Inspeiximus and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of letters patent, under the seal of Ireland, tested at Dublin, 25 April, 8 Henry V, by James de Botiller (sic), earl of Ormond, his lieutenant in Ireland, being a grant, during good behaviour, to Richard Asshewell, king's clerk, of the offices of chief clerk of the king's chief place in the land of Ireland; of keeper of the rolls, records, writs, certificates and all other muniments within the said place; and of clerk of the crown in the same, with the proper fees and rewards, to be discharged by him in person or by deputy.