nessed by Henry, bishop of Winchester, Geoffrey the chancellor, Stephen, count of Mortain, Aubrey de Veer, Richard Basset, and Miles of Gloucester, to the like effect.

4. A charter of Henry II, dated at Rouen by the hand of Stephen de Fulgeriis, and witnessed by Rotrou, bishop of Evreux, A. bishop of Avranches, Thomas the chancellor, W. earl of Albemarle, Hugh the earl, the earls of Arundel, the earl of Clare, Richard de Humet, the constable, M. Biset, the sewer, W. de Keisneto and Stephen do Turonis, the chamberlain, to the like effect.

5. Another charter of the same, witnessed at Rouen by Richard de Humoz (sic) and Manasser Biset, being a reminder to all concerned that the prior and canons of St. Bartholomew's, London, are the king's desmesne canons, and that their church is the king's desmesne chapel.

6. A charter, dated at Rouen, 24 March, 1 Richard I, being a confimation of the preceding.

7. Letters patent of the same date, tested by William, bishop of Ely, being a mandate to the sheriffs of London and Middlesex not to interfere with the fair of the said prior and canons.

8. A charter, dated at Brill, 29 December, 5 John, by the hand of Simon, provost of Beverley and archdeacon of Wells, and witnessed
