1423. Membrane 12—cont.

the rector and chaplains of such college, when founded, and their successors, that they may be capable of acquiring lands, tenements, rents and advowsons not held of the king, to the yearly value of 100 marks; that they may have a common seal, and plead and be implicated by the name of the rector of the college of St. Michael the Archangel of North Cadbury. Licence also, in mortmain, for the said Elizabeth and William, now lord of Botreaux, to grant to such rector and chaplains, the advowson of the church of North Cadbury, held of the king in chief, and 2 acres of land in North Cadbury, parcel of the manor of North Cadbury, also held of the king in chief, adjoining the churchyard, for the manse and habitation of the said rector and chaplains to be built thereon: licence also for William Walton, knight, John Lannoy, and John Vyncent to similarly grant two messuages, 24 acres of land, 6 acres of meadow, and a penny-worth of rent, together with pasture for 6 oxen, 6 cows and 20 swine, in the town of North Cadbury not held of the king, and to the said rector and chaplains to receive and hold the same with such other lands, tenements, rents and advowsons which may be granted up to the said value of 100 marks, and to appropriate such churches to their own use. Licence also for the said William, now lord of Botreaux, and William Walton, as also for Ralph Botreaux, knight, John and William Botreaux, and John Walton, esquires, to execute a release of the said 2 acres of land, parcel of the said manor, and of the advowson of the said church of North Cadbury for themselves and their heirs to the said rector and chaplains immediately on the latter taking possession.

By p.s., and for 200 marks paid in the hanaper.

1424.

Feb. 1. Westminster. Pardon, for 5 marks paid in the hanaper, to Richard Joseph, John Borham, William Sabright, John Tutte, John atte More, Thomas Heygate, John Pesc, William Malter, John atte Havene, John Sawyer and John Garland for acquiring to themselves and their heirs, without licence, from Hugh de Naylynghurst, esquire, son and heir of Thomas de Naylynghurst, esquire, deceased, the manor of Gunnylyes in Felsted, co. Essex, held of the king in chief, and licence to them to hold the same.

Feb. 22. Westminster. In corpse and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to the burgesses, men and tenants of Newport, of letters patent, dated 25 November, 2 Henry V, inspecting and confirming letters patent, dated 10 September, 18 Richard II, inspecting and confirming to the burgesses, men and tenants of Newport, a charter, dated 4 March, 17 Edward II [Charter Roll, 17 Edward II, No. 29] in favour of Hugh le Despenser, the younger, and his heirs and their burgesses, and the other men and tenants of Kerdyf, Usk, Kaelion, Newport, Coubrugge, Neeth and Kenefeg in Wales.

By p.s.

May 14. Westminster. Commission for one year to William Lokewode to take and provide the wines required for the use of the household, and carriage for the same. By bill of the butler of England.

The like to John Newkar. By the like bill.

May 14. Westminster. Presentation of William Knaresburgh, chaplain, to the church of Little Launfare, alias Launer, in the diocese of London, void by the resignation of Ralph Harpam.

May 19. Westminster. Commission for half a year to Richard Mason to take and provide calves, porks and sucking pigs for the household.

By bill of the steward of the household.