July 4. John Alderford of the county of Norfolk, John Burgoyne, William Westminster. Wymbyl of the county of Cambridge, and Robert Trewelove of London, lately acquired to them and their heirs from Robert Cook, the manor of Caxton, co. Cambridge, held in chief, and entered therein, and afterwards the said John, John and Robert Trewelove, released all their right in the same to the said William and his heirs. Subsequently Walter de la Pole, knight, William Alyngton of Horseth, Richard Baynard of the county of Essex, Richard Fox of the same, John Symond of the same, John Hore of Childerle, and the said John Burgoyne, by the name of John Burgoyne of Drayton, also Thomas Caumpes, and William Walcote acquired the same manor to them and their heirs from the said William Wymbyl, and entered without licence.

Now the king, for 20l. paid in the hanaper, pardons these trespasses and licences the said Walter, William Alyngton, Richard, Richard, John Symond, John Hore, John Burgoyne, Thomas and William Walcote to hold the said manor to them and their heirs.
