July 4. Appointment, during pleasure, by advice of the council, of Hugh Bawent, clerk, to be treasurer of Ireland with the usual fees. By p.s.

Dec. 18. Inspectimus of letters patent, dated 12 July, 1 Henry V, inspecting and confirming to Richard Arundell, knight, and Alice his wife, letters patent, in their favour, dated 6 April, 3 Henry IV, 10 November, 6 Henry IV, 31 May, 9 Henry IV, 23 August, 13 Henry IV, and 28 December, 14 Henry IV respectively, and confirmation to the said Alice, who has survived the said Richard, of the above so far as relates to the last named letters patent of Henry IV, they being a grant for life to the parties of the manor of Benestede, co. Surrey, with the knights' fees, park and warren there, of all the lands and tenements in Wauton and Charlewode, in the same county, which were held by William Darrundell, knight, brother of the said Richard, and by Agnes his wife, and of the advowson of the church of Wauton, to the value of 80 marks a year.

By p.s.

July 13. Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to William Alberton, of the king's privy seal office, of the office of 'Ragelowe' of the commotes of Nancon, Issorvy, Ughcorvy, Eryon, Issaph, Gafflog and Dynlayn, co. Caernarvon, to be executed by him in person or by deputy, with the usual profits and emoluments.

July 11. Presentation of Nicholas Entwysell, clerk, to the church of Llanraydir, in the diocese of Bangor; directed to the guardian of the spirituality, the see being void.

July 15. The like of Peter Dunastell, chaplain, to the vicarage of Westangmering, in the diocese of Chichester, void by the resignation of John Nicoll; directed to the vicar general, the bishop being abroad.

King Henry V, proposing to found a certain house of religious persons in his manor of Istelworth, co. Middlesex, granted to Thomas, bishop of Durham, and Edmund, then bishop of Hereford, Thomas, duke of Exeter, Henry Fitz Hugh, knight, Roger Flore and other persons since deceased, a plot of land out of the demesne of his manor of Istelworth, in the parish of Twykenham, in the said county, with the buildings thereon, certain fisheries in the Thames opposite the said plot on both banks of the river, a certain fishery called 'Route,' opposite the same plot, in the same water, a certain weir by Kyngeston-on-Thames, called 'Hamme-ware,' in the county of Surrey, a plot of meadow adjoining the same weir inclosed by the Thames and by dykes, a dovecot and a plot of land adjoining it in Potireham, co. Surrey, a dovecot and a plot of land adjoining it in Hamme, two acres of land in Yveclo with the advowson of Yveclo church and the reversion of the manor of Worton, after the death of William Loveney, to whom the same remains by grant of Edward III, after the death of Alice, late the wife of Edmund Panconer, who held by grant of Edward III, and who now holds of her at the yearly rent of 8 marks; the priory of Oterton alias Otryntgon, the priory of Mount St. Michael, co. Cornwall, 110l. a year out of the farm of the priory of Lancaster by the hands of Giles Lovell, now prior,