Wytton, in the said county, settled on the same terms by deed of John de Gunwardeby, dated at Coverham 22 February, 25 Edward III. by the name of all his lands, tenements, rents and services in the manor and town of Silton or elsewhere, in the county of York, to Henry Lescrop, knight, by the name of Sir Henry le Scrop, knight, son and heir of Sir Geoffrey le Scrop, knight.

The like relative to the manor of Watlows in the same county, granted in tail to Geoffrey le Scrop, knight, by Thomas de Nevill and Cicely his wife, by deed dated at Sandehall, Monday after Midsummer, A.D. 1340, by the name of their manor of Watlows, with appurtenances as in houses, gardens, woods, lands, meadows, pastures, services of freemen, villeins, villenages, their chattels and issues, knights' fees, advowsons, mills and suits of mill, &c. in exchange for the manor of Yarnewyk. By p.s.

Membrane 13d—cont.

July 12. The like relative to 40 messuages, 6 tofts, 2 carucates, 12 bovates and 6 acres of land, 30 acres of meadow, 1,000 acres of wood, 12 marks of rent, the moiety of a mill and of a knight's fee, and a third part of 600 acres of pasture, also 1,500 acres of moor, in Bernyngham, Dalton Norrcys, Mortham and Ncusom in Broughtonlith, in the said county, which by fine levied at Westminster before William de Herle and his fellows, justices of the Common Bench, in the quinnaile of Michaelmas, and the morrow of St. Martin, 6 Edward III., between Richard de Bernyngham, knight, plaintiff, and Robert de Mortham, vicar of Gaynford, and Richard de Thorp, defurers, were recognised to be the right of the said Robert as of the gift of the said Richard de Bernyngham, for which recognition the said Robert and Richard Thorp surrendered the premises to the said Richard de Bernyngham, since deceased, for life with remainder to Geoffrey le Scrop, knight, who was duly seised, and the heirs of his body. By p.s.

The like relative to the manors of Silton and Upsale, 100 messuages, 24 cottages, 18 tofts, 3 carucates and 1000 acres of land, 200 acres of meadow, 1,200 acres of pasture, 330 acres of wood, and 40l. of rent in Waddesworth, Dalton by Roderham, Thresk, Oswaldekyrke, Ampleford, Aldewerk, Legthons, Huntynydon, Sadebergh, Caldecotes and Bland in the said county, which John de Gunwardy, by deed dated at Coverham, 22 February, 25 Edward III, by the name of all his lands, tenements, rents and services in the manor and town of Silton or elsewhere in the county of York, granted in tail to Henry le Scrop, knight, by the name of Sir Henry le Scrop, knight, son and heir of Sir Geoffrey le Scrop, knight, and which are now in the king's hands. By p.s.

The like relative to 9l. 12s. of rent in Bilton in Aynsly, in the same county, settled as above, by grant of the same John de Gunwardby on the same date, by the name of all his lands, tenements, rents, and services in the manor and town of Silton or elsewhere in the county of York, but afterwards granted by Henry V, to Thomas Gren, esquire, for life. By p.s.

Membrane 10d.

July 11. Commission to Thomas de Carrowe, knight, the sheriff of Somerset Westminster and Dorset, the mayor and bailiffs of dermathe, the mayor of Briggs