1424.

Feb. 15. Grant, by assent of the great council, to John Lescrop, knight, for the term of four years of all the farms and rents of all the lordships, manors, lands, tenements and possessions which came to the hands of Henry V through the forfeiture of Henry Lescrop, knight, deceased, whether in the hands of the present king or demised to farm by his letters patent or those of his said father, for term of years, or so long as they should remain in the king's hands. The said John Lescrop within the said term of four years is to sue the premises out of the king's hand, according to the course of the common law or otherwise, and he is to restore into the Exchequer the said rents and farms in the meantime received, should he be unable to prove the premises to be entailed to him, or is to restore the issues for any parcels of the same, which within the said four years cannot be found to be entailed to him. By p.s.

Membrane 4–2.
