said John is to be taken to London and to be delivered to the keeper of the Tower, there to remain until, by advice of the council, the king shall order his release.

The like commission to the sheriff of the county of Stafford, adding that by colour of these preachings, to which the people much resort, riots and unlawful assemblies have increased in the county, and expressing surprise that the sheriff, contrary to the form of his oath, has neglected to take measures to arrest the said John and stop such riots and assemblies.

The like writ to the keepers of the peace in the county of Warwick and to the sheriffs of the counties of Salop and Warwick.

Membrane 16d.

1425.

May 18. The like between Yevelchestre, Burneham and Welles in the county of Somerset, to Thomas Broke, knight, Richard Cheddre, esquire, John Marchant and William Neweton.

Membrane 15d.

Nov. 23. Commission to John Hals, Thomas Rolf, William Burley, Hugh Burgh, Roger Corbet, John Wynnesbury and William de Lee, pursuant to the statutes of 25 and 45 Edward III, and 1 Henry IV, for the taking away of kid'ells and other obstructions in rivers, to survey and keep the waters and great rivers in the county of Salop.

Membrane 14d.

Appointments of justices of the peace in the town of Bishop's Lenn, and divers counties.

[For names of justices see Appendix.]

Membrane 12d.

Nov. 28. Commission to William Burley, Thomas Mordiford, John Bruyn and Hugh Harnage, to make inquisition in the county of Salop, concerning escapes of felons and condemned persons in the town of Salop, or the castle of the same.

Membrane 11d.

Nov. 12. Commission to Bartholomew Brokesby, esquire, Richard Wakeherst, William Sedeney and John Payn to make inquisition in the counties of Sussex and Salop, as to lands held in chief by Thomas, late earl of Arundel in those counties, but not returned in the inquisition held after his death.