By pet. in Parliament.

MEMBRANE 11.

June 4. Grant, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and of the commonality of England in the present Parliament, to Pinacius de Strociis and other merchants of Florence, dwelling in London, who have lent the king 500l. that they shall have repayment of the same out of the subsidy on wools by them shipped or to be shipped in the port of London in galleys, carkacks, ships or other vessels, by the hands of the collectors of the said subsidy. A tally for the amount levied at the receipt of the Exchequer has been delivered to the said merchants, who are to have all the necessary tallies, writs, &c. for the money to be paid and allowance made to the officers of the king and of his successors without paying anything to the king, his heirs or anybody else.

The like to Bernard Balby and other merchants of Venice, for a loan of 500 marks, who are however to be repaid as follows: viz. 300 marks from the subsidy of tunnage and poundage, and 200 marks from the subsidy on wools,
