Membrane 2—cont.

Jan. 9. The like to the abbot and monks of Fountains, of letters patent, dated 5 March, 9 Richard II, inspecting and confirming a charter, dated 26 June, 40 Edward III, inspecting and confirming a charter, dated at Roche Andelys, 9 November, 10 Richard I. [Nearly the same as Monasticon LXXVI.] By p.s.

Membrane 1.

Jan. 30. The like to the dyers of Bristol of letters patent, dated 25 April, 1 Henry V, inspects and confirming letters patent, dated 7 March, 13 Henry IV, inspecting and confirming certain ordinances (French) for the government of the mistery of dyers in the said town, drawn up under the seal of the mayoralty by John Droyes then mayor, John Fissher then sheriff, James Cokkes and David Dudbroke then bailiffs, by advice and assent of the common council of the town, and with the assent of the good men of the said mistery, dated 17 March, 8 Henry IV. By p.s.

Membrane 18d.

May 26. Commission to Robert Hilton, knight, Thomas Claymond, and the sheriff of Lincoln county, to hold inquisition as to whether John Thymelby has been an idiot from birth, whereby the ward of his lands and tenements would belong to the king, or whether he afterwards fell into such infirmity, so that such ward would not belong to the king, and generally as to his lands and possessions.

May 30. Commission to Robert Passemer, esquire, John Myners of the county of Stafford, and Henry de Bute of the county of Derby, to arrest Thomas Fitz Herberd of the county of Derby, late a soldier of Reginald, son of Reginald de Grey of York, knight, and to bring him before the king in the chancery.

June 1. Commission to John Grey, John Popham, Roger Fienles, Launcelot de Lys and John Holand, knights, or any two of them, to rule, survey and govern the men at arms, armed men, hobblers and archers, who have indented with the king to go to France in his present voyage, and to conduct them to France to the presence of John duke of Bedford, regent of the king's realm of France, or of deputies to be appointed by him to receive them.

By C.

May 16. Commission to Richard Wydevyll, esquire, to take at Dover on 25 May the muster of the following captains and of the men at arms and archers about to proceed to France in the present voyage in their company, and to certify the council as to the sufficiency of their array, viz. John Grey, knight, with 40 men at arms and 120 archers; Nicholas Caryngton, esquire, with 30 men at arms and 80 [90] archers, Richard Banastre and Thomas Scarebrok, esquires, with 10 men at arms and 30 archers, Hugh Werberton, esquire, with 10 men at arms, and 30 archers, Gilbert Banastre with 3 men at arms and 9 archers, Ralph Strangways, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers; Richard Mony- ton, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers, Godfrey Hilton, knight, with 40 men at arms and 120 archers, and Elias Longwyth, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers, the captains themselves being counted among the men at arms.

By p.s.