

1425.

Membrane 13d—cont.

Ingelram his eldest born son and Margaret his wife and the heirs of their bodies, by the name of all the land which he had in the town of Snaington in demesne, free service, bondage and cottier service (cotagio) with all foreign tillages (forinsecis culturis) which he had in the same town, whereof the said Ingelram and Margaret were seised in the time of Edward I. From them the right descended as mentioned in the last commission but one, the land being in the king's hands by virtue of the inquisition before Thomas de Santon, already twice mentioned.

By p.s.

MEMBRANE 12d.

May 20. Commission to Ralph Boteler, knight, John Burghhope, John Isaak, Westminster. esquire, and John Pykeryng, or any two or more of them, to take at Calais or some convenient place near by on the same day, the musters of the following captains and of the men at arms and archers about to proceed to France in their companies, and to certify the council as to the sufficiency of their array; John Holand, knight, with 24 men at arms and 72 archers; John Burnham, esquire, with 2 men at arms and 6 archers; Geoffrey de Wryghtyngton, esquire, with 6 men at arms and 18 archers; Edmund Cheyne, with 14 men at arms and 42 archers; John Watford and Robert Wolf, esquires, with another man at arms, making three men at arms in all, and 9 archers; Reginald Grey, knight, with 20 men at arms and 60 archers; Thomas Langford and John de Clayton, esquires, with 10 men at arms and 30 archers; John Popham, knight, with 30 men at arms and 90 archers; William Laurence, esquire, with 5 men at arms and 5 [15] archers; Lancelot de Lyle, knight, with 40 men at arms, among them one other knight, and 120 archers; Roger Fyenes, knight, with 30 men at arms and 90 archers; Robert Dalton, esquire, with 10 men at arms and 30 archers; Alexander Standissh, James Standissh and Thomas Standissh, esquires, brothers of Roland Standissh, esquire, with 9 men at arms and 27 archers; William Gloucestre, as a man at arms, and 3 archers; John Grey, knight, with 40 men at arms and 120 archers; Nicholas Caryngton, esquire, with 30 men at arms and 80 archers; Richard Banastre and Thomas Scaresbrok, esquires, with 10 men at arms and 30 archers; Hugh Werberton, esquire, with 10 men at arms and 30 archers; Gilbert Banastre with 3 men at arms and 9 archers; Ralph Strangweys, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers; Richard Monyon, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers; Godfrey Hilton, knight, with 40 men at arms and 120 archers; and Elias Longwych, esquire, with 4 men at arms and 12 archers; the captains being counted in the number of men at arms.

MEMBRANE 11d.

May 16. Commission to Hamon Belknap, esquire, to take the musters at Westminster. Dover on 25 May, and certify the council as to the array of the following: Lancelot de Lyle and Roger Fyenes, knights; Robert Dalton, the brothers Standyssh and William Gloucestre. Numbers as in last entry.

By p.s.

May 24. Commission to Reginald West, knight, Walter Sandres, knight, John Westminster. Uvedale, esquire, Richard Walop, William Sydney and William Wode,