Mandates in pursuance to the dean and chapter of the said church and to the guardian of the spirituality of the said archbishopric. By p.s.

[1425.]

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Walter Fitz Wautier, knight of the office of master of the king's dogs called 'herthoundes' with the usual fees, wages, and profits, in the same manner as William Bourchier, knight, had when alive. The said Walter held the office by grant of Henry V, which became void on the death of that king. By p.s.

Void because otherwise in the third year.

Dec. 1. Westminster. John Golaffre, William Brokas, William Daunvers, John Hyde, and Thomas Somerton, lately acquired to themselves and their heirs, from William Warbelton, esquire, the manor of Shyrfold, co. Southampton, held in chief, and entered therein, without licence; and afterwards granted the same manor to the said William Warbelton, and Margery his wife and the heirs male of their bodies, with remainder to the right heirs of the said William Warbelton; and he and the said Margery also entered in the manor without licence. The king now for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons these trespasses, and licences the said William and Margery to hold the manor as aforesaid.

Dec. 6. Westminster. Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Roland Standyssh, son of Christopher Standyssh, deceased, of the office of the constabulary of the castle of Dynnevor, co. Carmarthen, in the same manner as the said Christopher and Hugh Standyssh, knight, uncle of the said Roland, held the same, with all profits, rents, wages, dues, fees, and commodities anciently and reasonably due and accustomed. By p.s.

Nov. 29. Westminster. Presentation of John Warthill to the church of St. Edward, York, in the diocese of York, void by the death of John Swynton; directed to the guardian of the spirituality of the archbishopric.

Nov. 19. Westminster. Presentation of John Farley, parson of the church of Braghton, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Lyfton, in the diocese of Exeter, in the king's gift by reason of the ward of the land and heir of Elizabeth, late the wife of John Nevyll, knight, tenant in chief, being in his hands on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Smyth.

MEMBRANE 10.

Sept. 13. Westminster. It has been shown to the council by Richard Nevill, warden of the king's castle and town of Kardoille and of 'le Westmarche' towards Scotland, that divers wardens have had the sheriff's net called 'Friethnette,' in the water of Edyn beneath the said castle, and also certain meadows and other pastures belonging to and lying by the same castle called 'Brademedeowe, le Swyft, Midelholme, Kenyholme' and 'le Saucery;' and that the said Richard, as warden, has had the said net, meadows and pastures from 8 June, 8 Henry V, until now, and that the said 'frithnette' could not be in possession of any other than the warden
