- Feb. 24. Leicester. Inspeximus and confirmation by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal [in the Parliament] held at Westminster in the king's first year, to the burgesses of Lanbadar, co. Cardigan, of letters patent dated 12 May, 3 Henry V., inspecting and confirming a charter dated 12 June, 3 Richard II. [Charter Roll, 3 Richard II., No. 8], inspecting and confirming, with additions, the following:
  1. A charter dated 28 March, 5 Edward III., inspecting and confirming a charter dated 28 December, 6 Edward I. [Charter Roll, 6 Edward I., No. 24.]
  2. A charter of Edward II. when prince of Wales, addressed to all his ministers of Ugh Ayrun, and tested by Walter Hakelut, his justice, under the seal of the chancery of South Wales and West Wales at Carmarthen 4 August, 33 Edward I. confirming the grant of a market contained in his father's charter. By p.s.

- March 4. Leicester. Presentation of William Podyngton, chaplain, to the church of Weston by Beclys in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric of Norwich being in his hands.

- March 1. Leicester. Grant during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Joan Waryn, who was wet-nurse to the king's father, of 20l. a year at the receipt of the Exchequer, in lieu of 20l. a year granted her for life by the said late king out of the manor of Ystilworth, which manor is granted in mortmain (amortisatur) to the house of St. Saviour, Shene. By p.s.

- March 5. Leicester. Edmund, late earl of March, amongst other things, granted for ten years to William Lucy, knight, and Margaret, now his wife, by the names of William Lucy, son of Walter Lucy, knight, and Margaret Nevill, kinswoman of the said earl, the castle, lordships and manors of Nerbere and Seintelcre in Wales and the manor of Erleslane, co. Hereford, except one acre of land belonging to the said manor of Nerbere with the advowson of the church of that manor, all held in chief, and afterwards when the said William and Margaret were in possession, granted the premises to them and their heirs lawfully begotten. Also the said earl granted the said acre of land and advowson to John Tiptot, knight, and Richard Wyggemore, esquire, and their heirs, and they afterwards granted the same to the said William and Margaret and their heirs lawfully begotten; and the said John, Richard, William, and Margaret, successively entered in the same without licence. The king now for 50l. paid in the hanaper, pardons these trespasses, and licences the said William and Margaret to hold the said castle, lordships, manors, land, and advowson, as aforesaid.
