July 8. Pardon to John Lane of Yevell co. Somerset, 'webbe,' and Agnes his wife, of his outlawry and her waiver in the said county, in the following circumstances. John Trok having sued Stephen Hoper and Joan his wife before William Thirnyng and his fellows, justices of the Bench of Henry IV, for an alleged trespass at Crukern, the said Stephen and Joan sued the said John and Agnes Lane before Richard Norton and his fellows, justices of the Bench of Henry V, for having maintained the said John Trok in his said action, but the said John and Agnes Lane, although convicted, failed to appear before the said justices to satisfy the said late king of his ransom, and the said Stephen and Joan of their damages. The defaulters have now, however, surrendered to the Flete prison and have paid the said ransom and damages, as William Babyngton, chief justice of the Bench, has certified.
