May 23. By two inquisitions taken before Hugh Louther and William Scargill, late escheators in the counties of Cumberland and York, respectively, it was found that Ralph, earl of Westmorland, deceased, granted, by the name of Ralph earl of Westmorland, lord Neville of Raby and Meldelham, to William Tunstall and William Horne, clerks, Gilbert Waweton, John Morton and John Quixley and their heirs, his manor of Bolton in Alfordale, co. Cumberland, with the advowson of the church of Bolton aforesaid, and all his other lands, tenements, rents, services, fees, woods, meadows, pastures and possessions in the said town, and also an annual rent of 5l. 7s. 0½d. issuing out of the cornage in the said county, from the tenants of lands and tenements charged with such rent; and also to the same grantees, the manor of Sutton in Galtrres, co. York, with all other his lands, tenements, rents, services, fees, advowsons, reversions, warrens, franchises and liberties, in the said town of Sutton, held of the king in chief. By virtue of which grants the said grantees were seised without the king's licence, and the premises on the death of the said earl, and by reason of these trespasses were taken into the hands of the king, who now, for 100l. paid in the hanaper, pardons these trespasses and licences the said William Tunstall, William Horne, Gilbert, John and John to have again the premises as aforesaid.

Feb. 18. Commission to William Crowemere, alderman of London, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the present Parliament, and on a petition to the king in the same Parliament by the merchants of the Hanse in England, to be alderman and judge according to the law merchant of the causes of the said merchants in London, in accordance with their charters, in cases in which the mayor and sheriffs of London do not afford sufficiently speedy justice in the recovery of debts. [Cf. Rolls of Parliament, Vol. IV, p. 303.]

By pet. in Parliament.
