July 26.

Licence, by advice of the council, for the master and college of SS. Mary the Virgin, Thomas of Canterbury and Edward the Confessor of Highamferrers, lately founded by Henry, archbishop of Canterbury, to acquire in mortmain lands, tenements and rents to the value of 40 marks a year, in order that the king his heirs and progenitors, particularly Henry V, may be specially remembered in their prayers. By p.s.

July 26.

The like licence, but with a proviso against the acquisition of lands held in chief or by knight service.

Vacated because otherwise above.

By p.s.

April 18.

Grant to William Westbury, one of the king's justices of his Bench, for the fitting maintenance of his estate, of 110 marks a year, and two robes a year, one with lining at Whitsun'tide, and the other with fur at Christmas, in addition to the usual fee, so long as he shall remain in office.

By p.s.

April 18.

Grant to the same, who has been appointed one of the king's justices to hold pleas before the king himself, of power to receive anywhere in England, recognitions for the levy of fines of land, and to certify such when received to the justices of the Bench, who are to levy the fines accordingly.

By p.s.

Membrane 8.

July 23. Commission to H. archbishop of Canterbury, the bishop of Rochester, and J. bishop of Chichester, and to Robert Ponynges, and John Pelham, knights, to treat amongst themselves, and with the better sort of secular persons of the counties of Kent and Sussex, for a loan or chevance to the king until the quinzaine of Midsummer next; the said loan to be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer by 1 September next. The king engages to make prompt repayment at the said quinzaine out of the subsidies on wool, hides, and wool-fells, and of tunnage and poundage, and will have the letters patent, briefs, tallies, and other securities issued in accordance with the Act of his last Parliament at Leicester.

By C.

The like commissions to the following in the following counties:—

William, bishop of London,
Lewis Robessart, knight,
John Tirell,
Lewis John,
Robert Darcy,

The dean of St. Paul's,
Henry Sомер,
Thomas Frawyk,

}

Essex.

}

Middlesex.

W