plasterers, and other workmen and labourers, also the stones, timber, shingles, tiles, lead, lime, glass, iron and other things, required for the repair and rebuilding of the same. The said queen to pay.

By bill of John Ardern, clerk of the king's works.

MEMBRANE 13d.

July 14. Commission to Robert Tirwhit and John Preston, justices of assize for the counties of Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmorland and York, for the city of York and for the town of Newcastle upon Tyne, and to the king's escheators and sheriffs in the said counties, city and town, or any three of them, to make inquisition in the same as to escapes of traitors, and felons from prisons of the king or of other persons in the same, which escapes belong to the king, but have been concealed from him; also as to feoffments and alienations of lands, tenements, rents, and possessions held immediately of the king, and of entries made into such without his licence, and as to any other concealments.

The like to the following:

William Babyngton and William Westbury, justices of assize, and to the escheator and sheriffs in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Bedford, and Buckingham, and in the city of Norwich.

John Juyn and William Paston, justices of assize, and to the escheators and sheriffs, in the counties of Essex, Hertford, Kent, Middlesex, Surrey, and Sussex.

John Martyn and John Cottesmore, justices of assize, and to the escheators and sheriffs in the counties of Cornwall, Southampton, Wilts, Somerset, Dorset, and Devon.

John Cokayn and James Strangways, justices of assize, and to the escheators and sheriffs in the counties of Lincoln, Warwick, Leicester, Nottingham, Derby, Rutland, and Northampton, and in the city of Lincoln.

MEMBRANE 11d.

Aug. 1. Commission to Thomas Kiryell, knight, Geoffrey Louther, John Darell, and Thomas Stokdale, to take at Dover, the muster of the 100 men-at-arms, and 300 archers, retainers of Richard, earl of Warwick, who are about to proceed to France, and to certify the council of the sufficiency of their array, both as to armament and horses.