1427.

Membrane 16—cont.

May 10. Appointment, during pleasure, by advice of the council, of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, to be justice of North Wales, and to discharge the office in person or by deputy, with the usual fees and wages. By p.s.

July 9. Pardon to John Bogays of the county of Cambridge, of his outlawry in the county of Surrey, for not appearing before Henry V to pay John Kennesman 10l. damages for a trespass, which the said Bogays was convicted of having done to the said Kennesman, the said Bogays having surrendered to the King’s Bench prison of the Marshalsea and paid the said damages, as William Cheyne, chief justice, has certified.

July 7. Presentation of Thomas Pymme to the church of Ewa in the diocese of Exeter.

July 7. The like of Thomas Edyngham, chaplain, to the church of Dene in the diocese of Lincoln.

July 12. The like of William Camelston, chaplain, to the church of Castell Rysyng in the diocese of Norwich, directed to the vicar general in the absence of the bishop abroad.

July 15. John, earl of Huntyngdon and Anne his wife, staying in England, have letters nominating Francis Toppesfeld and William Chenere their attorneys in Ireland for three years.

July 11. Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, of 12d. a day at the Exchequer to John Clynk, king’s servitor, whom Henry V made one of his serjeants at arms at Tonk in Normandy, and who has since served in that office without reward. By p.s.

MEMBRANES 15 and 14.

July 12. Insiprimus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king’s first year, to John Depyng, now prior, and to the canons of SS. Julian and Botolph, Colcestre, and their successors of the following:

2. A charter of Henry I, being a grant of a tithe of the king’s demesne at Hetfelda. [Monasticon, No. I.]

3. Another charter of the same as follows:—H. rex Anglorum M. episcoopo et Hugoni de Boch[elanda] et Aliredo et omnibus baronibus suis Francis et Anglis de Essessa salutem. Sciatis me dedisse et concessisse canonicis sancti Juliani de Colcestre decimam de Hetfelda, manerio meo, pro anima mea et anteecessorum meorum in omnibus rebus ad ipsum manerium pertinentibus. Et tu, Hugo de Boch[elanda], eos inde saniyas. Testibus Mathilde Regina et Roberto episcoopo Lincolniensi et Eudone dapifer o et Rogerio Bigot et Willemo Male et Willemo Baiard, apud Bercholdam.