Nov. 10. Westminster. Pardon, for 10l. paid in the hanaper, to John Seymour, kinsman and one of the heirs of William Esturmy, knight, for acquiring to himself and the heirs male of his body from Thomas Polton, bishop of Worcester, John Benger the younger, and Richard Harden, and entering without licence a moiety of the manor of Stapelford, hold in chief, with the appurtenances except the advowson of the church there.

Oct. 10. Westminster. It was found by inquisition taken before Robert Ashleigh, escheator in the county of Wilts, that William Sturmy, knight, being seised of a moiety of the manor of Stapelford, with the advowson of the church of the same, held in chief, granted the premises without licence to Sir Thomas Polton, bishop of Worcester, and to John Benger the younger, and their heirs, whereby they were seised. The premises were taken into the king's hands, by reason of this trespass, but now he pardons it, for 10l. paid in the hanaper, and licences the said bishop and John to have again and to hold the premises as aforesaid.

Nov. 14. Westminster. Licence, for a fine of 20s. paid in the hanaper, for Thomas Kardeston, knight, to close a road in Claxton, leading from Norwich to the town of Langley Abotts, on providing another way of the same length and breadth on his own land, it having been found by inquisition before Richard Elliswyk, escheator in the county of Norfolk, that the above can be done without injury to anybody.

MEMBRANE 18.
