Nov. 1. Westminster. It was found by inquisition taken before Robert Assheley, late exchequer in the county of Wilts, that William Sturmy, knight, by the name of William Esturmy, knight, granted the manor of Huwyssh, held in chief to Sir John Stafford, bishop of Bath, Thomas Polton, bishop of Worcester, Hugh Lutrell, knight, Richard Sotewell and Robert Torvey, in fee simple, without licence, whereby they were seized. By reason of this trespass the manor was taken into the king’s hands, but now, for 100s. paid in the hanaper, he pardons the trespass, and licences the above-named grantees to have again and to hold the manor.

Nov. 28. Westminster. Pardon, for 6s. 8d. paid in the hanaper, to Richard Harcourt of Shareshull, John Whitmore, clerk, John Wynnesbury of Pylatenhale, and William Reynold of Cank, for acquiring to themselves and their heirs, and to William lord of Bemyngham, and John Swynerton, since deceased, and to their heirs from John Salewey of Cannok, and entering without licence, one virgate of land in Cannok, held in chief, by the name of all the lands and tenements which the said John Salewey had in the county of Stafford. Licence also to the said purchasers to have again and to hold the said virgate, which, on the death of the said Salewey, was taken into the king’s hands.
