Vacated by surrender, the king on 10 March, 9 Henry VI, having granted the said office, with the consent of the said John, to Richard Hawe, for the life of the said John, and after his death during pleasure.

1427.

Licence, with the assent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and of the commonalty of England in the present Parliament, for Richard, bishop of Lincoln, to found a college of a warden or rector and a certain number of other scholars, to be called the college of St. Mary and All Saints, Lincoln, in the University of Oxford. [Royal Commission 1833, "Statutes of the colleges of Oxford," Vol. I, Lincoln College, p. (1), but at l. 22, 'quod ipse dictum ecclesiam Sanctae Myldrede' should be read 'quod ipse dictum ecclesiam Omnium Sanctorum et ecclesiam Sancte Mildrede.']

By pot. in Parliament and for 80l. paid in the hanaper.

On 4 November, 24 Henry VI, by virtue of this licence, the said warden or rector and scholars acquired to themselves and successors lands not held in chief, nor by knight service, to the value of 6l. 13s. 4d. a year, from the following persons, viz. from Roger Betson and Thomas Tanfeld, land in Oxford, co. Oxford; from Nicholas Wymbush, clerk, and the said Roger, lands in Littelmore, Yeftey, and Coule, co. Oxford; and from John Aston and John Gowly, land in Boteleya by Oxford, co. Berks.

MEMBRANES 7.

Nov. 24. Henry, archbishop of Canterbury, Henry, bishop of Winchester, Thomas, bishop of Durham, John Wodehous, John Loventhorp, Thomas late duke of Exeter, and Henry late lord Fitz Hugh, demised to Elizabeth, daughter of William Beauchamp of Powys, knight, for life, the manor of Sutton, with the hamlets of Potton, Stratton, and Holm, co. Bedford, and the manor of Asperton with the hamlet of Stratton, co. Hereford, held in chief, except knights' fees and advowsons, and she entered the premises. Moreover the same archbishop, bishops, duke, John Wodehous, John Loventhorp and Walter Hungreford, knight, demised to Thomas Swynford, esquire, and to the said Elizabeth, now his wife, for life, the manor of Snayth with its soke, by the name of the manor with the soke of Snayth, co. York, and the manor of Bridgesgreave, co. Surrey, also held in chief, except knights' fees and advowsons, which premises also the said Thomas and Elizabeth entered. All this was done without licence, but the king, for 50 marks paid in the hanaper, has pardoned the trespasses, and licences the said Thomas Swynford and Elizabeth to hold the said manors and soke of Snayth and Bridgesgreave, and the said Elizabeth to hold the said manors of Sutton and Asperton with the said hamlets as aforesaid.

Dec. 1. Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Margaret Breknam, appointed to attend on the king's person, of 10l. a year, out of the fees farm of the city of London, on her surrendering her grant of 100l. a year at the Exchequer, the amount of which, as she has shown to the king and council, is insufficient to maintain her honestly in her said attendance.

The like grant to Agnes Jakeman.
