Membrane 4—cont.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Sanky, king's esquire, one of the sewers within the household, for good service to the king's father abroad and to the king at home, of the office of being one of the king's sergeants at arms about his person, with the wages of 12d. a day, payable yearly at the Exchequer, in the room of Henry Brumley, deceased, the said John having shown to the king and council that the said Henry had such wages in right of such office.

Membrane 3.

Grant, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and at the special request of the commonalty of England in the present Parliament, to John Merbury, esquire, for life, for good service to Henry V, of 40 marks a year out of the issues of the county of Gloucester, he having surrendered a grant of the like amount out of the manor of Istelworth, co. Middlesex, made to him by the king's father when prince of Wales, and confirmed by the same when king, which last-named grant has been of no service since the said manor was granted to the abbess and convent of Shene. [Cf. Rolls of Parliament, Vol. IV, pp. 322-323.] By p.c. in Parliament.
