and may be a burgess and have all liberties and franchises, offices and occupations in all English cities, boroughs and towns, and may be for the future treated as if he were a born Englishman, any statute or provision to the contrary notwithstanding. But this grant is not to extend to his heirs. [Cf. Rolls of Parliament, Vol. IV, p. 325.]

By pet. in Parliament.

May 12. Presentation of Thomas Gourne, chaplain, to the vicarage of Westminster. Helgheton in the diocese of Norwich.

May 28. John Ligrowe, about to proceed to Ireland by the king's leave, has letters nominating William Savage and Geoffrey Logan his attorneys in England for two years. John Frank, clerk, received the attorneys.

June 13. Inexplimus and confirmation, by advice of the great council, of letters patent, under the seal of Chester, tested at Chester by Humphrey duke of Gloucester, guardian of England, 10 December, 8 Henry V, being a grant to Roger Mason, serjeant of the said late king, for life, of 40s. a year out of the profits of Lauton-Lydeyate, co. Chester, by the hands of the occupiers or farmers, in like manner as Roger Draycote had when alive [Chester Recognizance Roll]. By p.s.

May 20. Licence, for 20 marks paid in the hanaper, for Thomas earl of Salisbury and Alice his wife to enfeof in the manors of Charleton and Henrystigre, co. Somerset, held in chief, Henry, bishop of Winchester, Richard Hertcombe and John Bailly, and their heirs; and for the said encoffes, after seisin had, to re-encoff the said earl and his heirs in the premises.

June 14. Licence for John Stourton of Stourton, esquire, to empark 1,000 acres of land, meadow, pasture and wood within his manor of Stourton, co. Wilts. By p.s.

June 24. Pardon to John Bouchou, alias Northerenbouchour, of Teuesbury, co. Gloucester, 'bouchour,' for the death of John Scryvener, wherewith he was charged, he having killed him in self-defence as appears by the record of Thomas Rolf and Thomas Heuster, justices lately appointed to deliver the gaol of Gloucester castle.

Membrane 19.

May 3. Commission to William Westbury and John Fray to be justices of assize for the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Bedford and Buckingham, for cases arising under writ of Henry IV, Henry V or the present king. By K. and C.

May 16. John, prior of Lanthony by Gloucester, staying in England, has letters nominating brother William Stanburgh and brother Thomas Alkerton, his fellow canons, to be his attorneys in Ireland for six years.

John Juyn received the attorneys by writ.

May 18. Licence for Nicholas Auncell to grant in mortmain to the abbot and convent of Glastonbury, 4 messuages in the parish of St. Sepulchre in the suburb of London, held of the king in burgage, which have been found by inquisition taken by John Gedney, mayor and escheator in the said city of London, to be worth 60s. a year, in part satisfaction,