July 12. Grant, by advice of the council, to Alan Mercer, Nicholas Wetwange,
Westminster. Richard Smyth, and Stephen Baron, merchants of Newcastle-on-Tyne, in accordance with the provisions of the grant of a subsidy made to the king in the Parliament held at Westminster on 30 April, 3 Henry VI, that they may ship free of custom and subsidy wool and wool-fells equivalent to the amount which they lost in the ship called 'le Petre of Newcastle,' John Medowe, master, which they freighted on 10 September, 4 Henry VI, and which was wrecked when sailing towards the coasts of Middelburgh in Zeland; as appears by letters testimonial of the burgomasters, eschevins and council of Middelburgh, their respective losses being as follows:—The said Alan, 16½ sacks, and 6 cloves in 12 sarplers and pockets, and 180 wool-fells containing  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a sack of wool; the said Nicholas, 10¼ sacks and 11 cloves of wool in 8 sarplers and pockets, and 30 wool-fells containing half a quarter; the said Richard, 2 sacks and 6 cloves of wool in 2 pockets, and the said Stephen, 24 wool-fells. They were bound in obligations for the customs and subsidy on these quantities, amounting to 50*l.*, to the king, and to William Chauncellor and Thomas Cook, then customers in the said port of Newcastle, and the treasurer and chief barons of the Exchequer, by virtue of letters of privy seal to them directed, have certified that the said merchants have produced sufficient evidence before the council that the said goods were lost as above stated. By p.s.
