Membrane 26—cont.

Alexander Parker and William Rasour, yeomen of the office of caterer, to be caterers until 26 April next.

Walter Hale and Richard Bosworth, yeomen of the office of the poultry, to be poulterers until 23 April next.

John Brown and John Freston, yeomen of the poultry, and John Hanham, serjeant of the same, to be poulterers until 20 May next.

Robert Freman, yeoman of the office of the catery, to be caterer until 3 June next.

John Blakeman, Thomas Parys and Richard Mason, yeomen of the office of the catery, to be caterers until 12 August next.

Richard Breuster, serjeant of the office of the bakery, and Thomas Sende and John Strenger, yeomen of the same, to be bakers until 16 August next.

Henry Rys, yeoman of the office of the poultry, to be poulterer until 12 October next.

William Rothwell, serjeant of the office of caterer, and William Rasour, yeoman of the same, to be caterers until 8 November next.

Richard Somer to the office of the avenary until 7 December next. By bill of the steward of the household.

Thomas Hill, the like. By bill of the treasurer of the household.

Robert Freman and John Bay, yeomen of the catery, to be caterers until 16 December next.

John Hoby, yeoman of the catery, to be caterer until 27 December next.

Membrane 25.

John Freston, yeoman of the office of the poultry, to be poulterer until 6 January next. By bill of the treasurer of the household.

Grant, by advice of the council, to the freemen of the mistery of grocery of the city of London, that the said mistery and all the men of the same shall be henceforth a corporation and perpetual commonalty, that the said commonalty every year may elect three wardens to survey, rule and govern the said mistery and commonalty and all the men and business of the same; that the said wardens and commonalty shall have a perpetual succession and common seal, and be capable of purchasing in fee lands, rents and other possessions; that, under the name of the wardens of the commonalty of the mistery of grocery of London, they may implead and be impaled in any court. Also the said wardens and commonalty may acquire in mortmain lands and rents in the city of London and the suburbs thereof, not held in chief, to the yearly value of 20 marks to aid in maintaining the poor men