manors and lands, to the yearly value of 200L. have come to the king’s hands by reason of the death of Catherine, late the wife of John Beaumont, late lord of Folkyngham, petitioner’s grandfather, and of the death of Elizabeth, late the wife of the said Henry. The petitioner is in the king’s service, and has been deriving great part of his sustenance from the said Elizabeth, which he lacks through her death, having nothing now besides the said 40L. yearly. The king, therefore, by advice of the council, and in consideration of the petitioner’s services, has granted to him, during his minority, besides the said 40L. 40 marks a year out of the issues of the manors and lands which came to the king’s hands on the deaths of the said Catherine and Elizabeth, by the hands of the farmers thereof.

By p.s.

Licence, for 22L. paid in the hanaper by the prior and convent of St. Mary’s, Thetford, co. Norfolk, for John, duke of Norfolk, patron of the house, his heirs and assigns, to assign in mortmain to the said prior and convent the manor of Santon, and one toft and 80 acres of land in Santon and Westtotes in the said county, not held of the king.

Edmund Stapilton, esquire, Brian Stapilton, esquire, William Paston, John Lynford, and Thomas Stodhagh, surviving, and William Evenwode, clerk, since deceased, lately acquired to themselves, their heirs and assigns, from Brian Stapilton, knight, for term of his life, one acre of land in the manor of Langford, and one acre of land in the manor of Godeford, co. Wiltz, and the advowsons of the churches of the said manors, held in chief, and entered in the same without licence; with remainder, after the death of the said Brian to Miles, his eldest son, and Elizabeth, his wife, and the heirs of their bodies. The king for 40S. paid in the hanaper, has pardoned the above trespass, and licences the said surviving purchasers to hold the premises with remainder as aforesaid.

Licence for Thomas Mersh, citizen and grocer of London, to load 10,000 fleeces now in the port of Feversham, co. Kent, and ship them thence to Colchestre, in Essex, without paying custom or subsidy, he having found sureties in the chancery, viz. himself in 200L. and Thomas Walsyngham of London, ‘marchaunt’ in the like amount, that the said fleeces shall not be carried to any other place.

Grant, during pleasure, to John Poutrell of the office of tronage and pesago in the port of London with the usual fees and wages.

By bill of the treasurer.

Presentation of Clement Denston, parson of Lower Rykynghal, in the diocese of Norwich, on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Brakenholm, to the church of Rysby, in the same diocese, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Edmund, Bury, being in his hands.

The like of the said Thomas to the said church of Lower Rykynghal, in the king’s gift for the above reason.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Rose Chetewynd for her good service about the king’s person in his tender age, of 10L. a year at the Receipt of the Exchequer.

Vacated by surrender, the king on 16 March, 15 Henry VI, having granted the said annuity in another form.