Feb. 16. Westminster. It has been found by inquisition before Malcolm Walwayn, escheator in the county of Hereford, that John Goldyngton, Robert Sireston and John Swanscombe, still surviving, and John Chancy and Robert Kendale, since deceased, were seised in their desmesne as of fee of the manor of Founhope, held in chief, and granted the same to John Chaundos, knight, since deceased, and his assigns for his life, whereby he had possession for his life, without the king’s licence being obtained. On his death the manor was taken into the king’s hands, but now, for 40s. paid in the hanaper, these trespasses have been pardoned, and the said Goldyngton, Sireston and Swanscombe may have again and hold the premises.
