1429.

Membrane 6d—cont.

England, and his company, to parts beyond sea, the vessels to be brought to the ports of Sandwich and Dover, and the wages of the men to be paid by the commissioners.

The like to John Talbot and John Clynk. [Federa.]

Membrane 5d.

June 26. Commission to Robert Shutesbroke, knight, Geoffrey Louther, esquire, and Robert Burton, and to any two of them, to take at Bereham Downe on 1 July next, the muster of John Radclyf, king's knight, and of the men at arms in armour, archers and others, his retainers, about to proceed in his company to France.

The like to John Skydmore, knight, John Darell, esquire, and John Hexham. By C.

June 28. Commission to Geoffrey Louther, lieutenant of the constable of Dover castle and warden of the Cinque ports, and to the sheriff of Kent, to arrest Hugh Frischney, a monk of the Cistercian monastery of St. Mary, Kirkstead, who is roaming in secular garb, as the abbot has certified.

June 26. Commission to Geoffrey Louther, esquire, John Darell, esquire, and John Hexham to be present at the muster of the men at arms and archers who are going abroad in the company of Henry, cardinal of England, and to certify the king and council of the day, place and manner of the said muster, and of the number and names of the troops. [Federa.]

Membrane 3d.

July 16. Commission to John Arundell, knight, steward of Cornwall, Thomas Arundell, knight, John Cork, Richard Resprene, John Copleston, Nicholas Radeford, Nicholas Assheton and James Chidelegh, esquire, and to any two or more of them, pursuant to Statutes 9 Edward III [Stat. 1, c. 1], 25 Edward III [Stat. 3, c. 2], and 11 Richard II [c. 7], it being reported that divers persons of the counties of Devon and Cornwall have been preventing merchants, alien and native, from buying and selling freely.

Membrane 2d.

July 10. Commission to William Westbury, John Fray and the sheriff of Buckinghamshire to enquire by sworn inquest of that county as to the facts of the following matter. It has been stated to the king and council by William Parker of Eton, and William his son, that John Stratton, alias Peyntour, of Fenystratford, being seised in his demesne as of fee of two messuages and a cottage in Fenystratford, by deed of feoffment, dated at Stratford on Monday before the Purification, 6 Henry V, granted the premises to Robert Cravene and Isabella his wife of Stratford, of the parish of Seweston, and their heirs by the name of all his lands, rents and services with all their liberties and appurtenances, and the said feoffees, being seised, by their deed of feoffment, dated at Fenystratford 4 May, 7 Henry V, granted the premises by the name of those burgages in the town of Fenystratford, which they had by gift of John Stratton, alias Peyntour, to the said William Parker and William his son and their heirs by the names of William Parker of Eton, and William Eton,