   manor of Wodestoke.
   John Blake, the like.

Feb. 28. Westminster. Walter ap Ith, in the church of Byshopston in the diocese of Hereford.

1430.
Oct. 20. Westminster. Presentation of Richard Aykescog to the church of Kyngesdoun in the diocese of Canterbury, void by the resignation of William Smyll and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury, being in his hands.

Oct. 26. Westminster. The like of Thomas Jobur to the church of Drayton Passelew in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John Massy, of the order of Friars Minors.

Oct. 25. Westminster. Henry IV and Ivo Fitz Waryn, knight, were lately seised in fee of the manor of Eton Tregoyds co. Hereford with the advowson of the chapel of Eton to the use and profit of Hugh de Waterton, knight. Fitz Waryn released his right to the said Waterton his heirs and assigns, and the same Waterton, at his death, ordained that Thomas Langley, bishop of Durham, supervisor of his will, and Robert Basset, since deceased, and John de Leventhorp and William Bruteley, chaplain, his executors, should dispose of a moiety of the said manor and advowson according to his last will to them declared. Afterwards the said late king, wishing to fulfil the last will of the said Hugh, granted by deed one moiety of the premises to Catherine, late wife of the said Hugh, for life, with remainder, in fee simple, to the said supervisor and executors, to dispose of according to the said will: and they, in accordance with the same, demised a moiety of a moiety of the said manor and advowson to Blanche, wife of Robert Chalons, knight, one of the daughters and heirs of the said Hugh, and the heirs of her body, with remainder to the heirs of the body of Elizabeth, late the wife of John Aphary of Puston, the other daughter and heir of the said Hugh, with remainder over to Hugh's right heirs. Now the said manor is held in chief and the said Robert Chalons and Blanche entered in the said moiety of a moiety without licence, but the king for 4 marks paid in the hanaper pardons this trespass, and grants that the said settlement shall stand.

Oct. 28. Westminster. Presentation of William Leche, chaplain, to the vicarage of Sturrey in the diocese of Canterbury, void by the resignation of Richard Hallo and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of St. Augustine, Canterbury, being in his hands.

Oct 24. Westminster. It was found by inquisition before Robert Mauleverer, escheator in the county of York, that Robert Thornour, deceased, was seised in his desmesne as of fee of a capital messuage, 60 acres of land, and 4 acres of meadow in Farsley, which are held in socage, and being so seised, by the name of Robert Thornour, son and heir of Thomas Thornour, granted the premises, amongst other things, by the name of his manor of Eccleshill and of all his lands, rents and services in Eccleshill, Farslay, Calverley, Pudsay and Thornour, to Thomas Thunstall, knight, William Scargyll, Thomas Haryngton, John Haryngton, Robert Passelew, John Frankes and Henry Scalwra, and their heirs, whereby they were seised. On the death
