July 6. Westminster. Inspeccimus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to the abbot and convent of St. Dogmael's in Kemmoys, of letters patent dated 2 April, 4 Henry V, of inspeccimus and confirmation.

By inquisition taken before John Cartington, escheator in the county of Northumberland, it was found that John Neville, lord Latymer, held for life on the day of his death, the site of the manor-house (manerii) of Styford, 800 acres of land, 20 acres of meadow, and 100 acres of moor, from the king in chief, by demise of Ralph late earl of Westmoreland, to whom and whose heirs the reversions belongs; such heir now being Ralph, earl of Westmoreland, 'son of John Nevill, 'chivaler,' son of the said late earl. On the death of the said John Latymer, and by reason of the trespass above referred to, the premises were taken into the king's hands, but now, for 10 marks paid in the hanaper, he has pardoned the trespass and licences the said now earl to have and hold the premises.

July 12. Westminster. Protection with clause volumus for one year for Roger de Aghton, esquire, alias Roger de Acton of Aghton, esquire, about to proceed to Ireland in the company of Thomas Stanley, knight, the king's lieutenant in that country.
