1432.
March 1.
Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John Everdon, clerk, and Roger Appleton, as auditors to hear and determine the accounts of the sheriffs, feodaries, escheators, receivers, bailiffs, reeves, officers and ministers of the king liable to account, in the parts of South Wales; each receiving the daily wages which have been usual by the hands of the chamberlain or other ministers.

By bill of the treasurer.

March 3.
Westminster.

The like appointment of John Geryn and Richard Redford for North Wales and the county of Chester.

By bill of the treasurer.

March 2.
Westminster.

The like of John Somer and John Walash to audit the accounts of sheriffs, feodaries, haveners, receivers, bailiffs, farmers, reeves, officers and ministers of the duchy of Cornwall in the county of Cornwall and elsewhere in England, with such wages and fees as they have previously had.

By bill of the treasurer.

Feb. 1.
Westminster.

Licence, for 12l. paid in the hanaper, for Robert Pedwardyn, knight, to enfeoff Thomas Hathy, parson of South Warneborn, Hugh Haltott, vicar of Burton, and Roger Bay of Helprygham, and their heirs, in the manor of South Warneborn, co. Southamptone, and the manor of Burton by Helprygham, and a moiety of the manor of Notton, co. Lincoln, which are held of the king in chief. Licence also for the said feufoes, after saisins had, to grant the premises to the said Robert and to Roger Pedwardyn, his kinsman, and the heirs of the latter.

March 25.
Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of William Baron to be controller of the great custom, and of the subsidy on wool, hides and wool-fells in the port of London, with the usual fees and wages and the statutory provisions.

By bill of the treasurer.

March 26.
Westminster.

Grant, by advice of the council, to John, earl of Huntyngdon, and Anne his wife, of leave of absence from Ireland for three years, with licence for the rents and profits of their castles, manors, lordships and lands there to be remitted to them in England.

By p.s.

1431.
Nov. 28.
Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Richard Sandes of the office of gauger of the Cinque Ports, with the usual fees and profits, in the same manner as Nicholas Howedow had when alive.

By p.s.

Vacated by surrender, the king on 20 June, in his sixteenth year, having granted him the office for life.

1432.
Feb. 27.
Westminster.

John, archbishop of York, who has had the keeping either of the privy or of the great seals for ten years, and whose cares in those offices have left him no leisure for his cures of souls and the due performance of prayer, is desirous so far as he may of repairing this defect by the aid of priests by him to be provided with sustenance, and particularly to found on his own land in the parish of Wy, co. Kent, where he was born, a certain chantry of a certain number of chaplains to be called the chantry of St. Gregory, the said chaplains to be charged with the exhibition or sustenance of a master in grammar, who shall freely teach all repairing to him and his schools, and also with the sustenance of certain choristers, clerks and boys, of which chantry the said archbishop desires that the vicar of the parish church of Wy, for the time being should be master, and his parish chaplain one of the chaplains. The said master and chaplains are to observe the ordinances to be made by the