Membrane 20—cont.

John Hanham, serjeant of the office of the catery, the like. By the like bill.

Richard Mason, yeoman of the said office, the like. By the like bill.

John Hanham, serjeant of the said office, the like. By the like bill.

John Rate, yeoman of the office of the poultry, to provide for the office of the poultry until 22 January next. By the like bill.

Ratification, by advice of the council, of the estate of Ralph Reyner, chaplain, as prebendary of the prebend of Tamothan in the cathedral church of St. Patrick, Dublin; provided that no plea in the matter be pending in the king's court, and that the king have not collated anyone else.

By p.s.

Oct. 15. Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Rysly, messenger, of the office of the keeping the king's palace called 'Princes-paleys,' at Westminster, with 3d. a day wages in like manner as Simon Bialieu had when alive, by the hands of the receiver general of the duchy of Cornwall. The said John has surrendered letters patent dated 3 December, 2 Henry VI. granting him the office with the usual wages and fees by the hands of the receiver general of the principality of Wales, which are invalid because there is no such receiver general.

By p.s.

Grant, by advice of the council, to John Badle of the 'picherhous' within the household, for service to the king's father and to the king, of the office of porter and gaoler of the castle of Norhampton, with the usual fees and wages as William Benys held the same, provided always that the office is in the king's gift, and that he has not granted it to anybody else.

By p.s.

Revocation of the protection for one year granted on 1 July last to John Couyan of London, 'marchaunt,' as being in France in the company of John, duke of Bedford, because he tarryes in London, as John Olney and John Pattesle, the sheriffs, have certified.

MEMBRANE 28.

Inspeccimus and confirmation, by advice and assent of the lords spiritual and temporal in the Parliament held at Westminster in the king's first year, to the abbott and convent of Holculturam of a charter dated 19 April, 11 Henry III [Charter Roll, 11 Henry III, part 1, m. 9, No. 79 bis], being a charter of protection, granting that the abbott and convent shall not be impleaded touching any tenement which they hold in demesne except before the king or his chief justice or on the king's writ.

By K. & C. in Parl.

Licence, by advice of the council, for Richard duke of York, to be absent from Ireland for three years, and to have the issues of his castles, lordships, manors, lands and other possessions there forwarded to him in England; any statute or ordinance against absentee notwithstanding.

By p.s.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John Merston, esquire, keeper of the king's jewels, to be controller of tin within the counties of Cornwall and Devon from Michaelmas last, with such wages and fees by the hands of the receiver there as John Fortescau had.