1432.

Nov. 19.
Westminster.

Licence, by advice of the council, for Thomas Draper, to found a chantry of two chaplains to celebrate divine service every day in the chapel which he has built in honour of the Virgin in the parish church of Newport, for the good estate of the king and of Humphrey, duke of Gloucester, while alive, and for their souls after death, and for the souls of Henry V, and of the other faithful departed. Licence also for the said Thomas or his executors to endow the chantry with lands and rents, not held of the king in chief nor of anybody else by knight service, to the value of 10l. a year; and grant that the chaplains and their successors, by the name of the chaplains of the chantry of St. Mary, Newport, may sue and be sued, and may purchase lands in mortmain.

1433.

Jan. 8.
Westminster.

Licence, by advice of the council, for the abbots of Clairvaux and Tulley (Theodoric) doctors in theology, of the Cistercian order, now in England, to pass, without the realm, to the general council; to wit the abbot of Clairvaux with 61 nobles of English money, 20 gold deniers (aurei) of Scotch money, 5 florins of Almain money, 2 clincards of Flemish money, 1 small mouton of French money, two golden rings, a seal and counter-seal of silver, six silver cups, eight horses with harness, eight persons with budgets, mails and clothing, one bible, brevies and certain other books; and the abbot of Tulley with 60 nobles of English money, 23 crowns and 4 salutes of French money, 35 deniers of Scotch money, 42 florins of Almain money, 24 clincards of Flemish money, three small gold rings, one silver seal and counterseal, six silver cups, five horses with harness, five persons with budgets, mails and clothing, one breviary and one small book of statutes of the order.

Jan. 29.
Westminster.

Licence for the prior and convent of Burton on Trent to elect an abbot in the room of brother Robert Onewesby, resigned.

1432.

Nov. 2.
Westminster.

Licence, by advice of the council, and for 20 marks paid in the hanaper, for Thomas Walsyngham and Margaret his wife to grant in mortmain to Thomas, the abbot, and the convent of the monastery of St. Thomas the Martyr, Lesnes, a messuage and 100 acres of land in Plumstead, co. Kent, called 'Fulhammes place,' found by inquisition taken by John Feriby, escheator in that county, to be of the yearly value of 4l., in exchange for the manor of Tonge, alias Tongcourt, in Chisellhurst, Orpyngton and Bromley in the same county, found by the same inquisition to be worth 4 marks a year.

1433.

Jan. 29.
Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to Bartholomew Lathe, plumber, of the office of the plumbing of the king's works, with 12d. a day wages by the hands of the clerk of the works and a robe every Christmas of the king's livery of the suit of the esquires of the household by the hands of the keeper of the Great Wardrobe, in like manner as John Beauchamp had when alive.

Feb. 6.
Westminster.

Presentation of Nicholas Dixon to the parish church of Cotyngham, in the diocese of York, void by the death of John Dalton and in the king's gift by reason of the nonage of Henry Gray, lord of Powye, in his ward.

Westminster.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Stephen Hatfield and Robert Greydoure to be stewards of the manor and borough of Strogoill and of the manor of Tudenhame in the march of Wales, with their members, which are in the king's hands by reason of the death of John, duke of Norfolk, to act in person or by deputy, with the usual fees and wages.

By bill of the treasurer.