1433.
Feb. 15. Westminster.

Presentation of Richard Andrewe, king's clerk, to the portion in the parish church of Woteston, in the diocese of Lincoln, which Henry Burton held, in the king's gift by reason of the minority of Thomas, earl of Devon.

1432.

Commission to the lord Hungerford, steward of the household to Henry V, William Philip, 'chivaler,' the chamberlain, treasurer of the household to Henry V, and to Robert Babthorp, 'chivaler,' now steward of the household, controller of the same to Henry V, to apportion amongst the said late king's household servants the 4,000l. left to them in his will.

[Pedera.]

By p.s.

1433.
Feb. 10. Westminster.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to John Hanham, esquire, serjeant of the poultry, for good service to Henry IV and subsequent kings, of the office of bailiff (ballagium) of the honours of Boulogne, Peverell and Hagenet in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Essex, Hertford, Cambridge, and Surrey, to hold in person or by deputy, with all the issues, profits and commodities to the same belonging, which lately were given to Henry Thornton, deceased, for the sum of 12 marks a year.

By p.s.

Presentation of Thomas Wroxtale, vicar of the church of Polyng, in the diocese of Chichester, to the church of Silhamstede Banastre, in the diocese of Salisbury, on an exchange of benefices with Ralph Grove.

Grant, by advice of the council, to Henry, cardinal of England and bishop of Winchester, for his good service in going on the king's behalf to the general council of Basle, that he shall not be impelled on the king's behalf for two years for anything by him done heretofore. By p.s.

Grant, during pleasure, by advice of the council, to William Etton of the office of constable of the castle of Newcastle upon Tyne, with the fees, wages and profits thereto belonging and a parcel of meadow enclosed by the water of Tyne with the herbage thereof, otherwise called the mowing (falcatione) of the King's Meadow. This meadow is said not to exceed 50l. a year in value; any surplus over that amount must be answered to the king.

By p.s.

Appointment of Geoffrey Don to be steward of all castles, manors and lands in 'Gowersland,' South Wales, which were of John duke of Norfolk; to hold in person or by deputy during the nonage of the said duke's heir, with the usual fees and wages. By bill of the treasurer.

Presentation of John Emmotes to the church of Northpyddyll, in the diocese of Worcester, void by the resignation of Simon Belton.

Appointment, during pleasure, of John Everdon and Roger Appilton as auditors of the accounts of chamberlains, sheriffs, foedaries, escheators, receivers, bailiffs, reeves, officers and ministers of the king, liable to account, in South Wales, with such wages and fees by the hands of the chamberlains and other ministers there as previous auditors have had.

By bill of the treasurer.

MEMBRANES 11 and 10.

Innotescimus, at the request of William Russe, citizen and goldsmith of London, Thomas Hansard, William Stafford, clerk, and John Bryan, clerk, executors of Bartholomew Goldbeter, late master of the mint, and